It all started in 2004 with friends who shared a passion for illustration and chocolate. Today Le Chocolat des Français prides itself on its 100% French-made bio chocolates using traditional methods and pure cocoa butter. The witty illustrations are the work of more than 400 artists across the world, and the tablets have been featured in museums including the Louvre in Paris and MoMA in NYC.

For more than 25 years, Île de Ré Chocolats has been making chocolates, caramel, and regional specialties. It uses local raw materials, like fleur de sel from the Île de Ré and AOP Charente-Poitou butter, and it offers products that reflect its unique terroir: chocolate mussels, sardines, and potatoes from the Île de Ré, along with caramels with fleur de sel from the Île de Ré.

A true finder of forgotten recipes, the Petit Duc in Saint-Rémy de Provence has breathed new life into many specialties while developing its own original creations. Le Petit Duc relies on traditional methods to produce its famous square calissons, illustrious cookies, exceptional nougats and single-origin chocolates.

Chocolate-filled eggs are a long tradition in chocolate-making, now almost forgotten. The egg is painstakingly removed from the shell, the shells are washed and sterilized, and then filled with chocolate praliné & hazelnut pieces or chocolate praliné and pieces of crêpes dentelles.

To enjoy, chill the egg in the refrigerator for 15 minutes or heat in the microwave and dip your brioche in the melted chocolate.
